

Domestic Violence & Child Advocacy Center Art Display

Art Therapy with Youth Exposed to Domestic Violence

On display at the Ohio Department of Mental Health

October 1 - December 31, 2012

Display Hours: 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday

James A. Rhodes State Office Tower
30 East Broad Street, 8th Floor, Columbus

Art expressions from youth & adolescents who have been impacted by domestic violence and are involved in group or individual art therapy through DVACC's community-based outreach program. Art on display explores themes related to safety, resilience, emotional expression, domestic violence prevention, and managing trauma stress.

For more information about this display, please contact Gretchen Miller, MA, ATR-BC, CTC
gmiller@dvcac.org | 216-688-7219